Besides, a catalogue on the exhibition will be released in two languages.

The name of the Vilnius Plein Air 2013 is Postludium.

The artists are welcome to create and improvise by combining the two opposites of the opportunity – the archaic inheritance and the content of the contemporary life adapted to it, i.e. by merging in their creations the archaic inheritance with the myths, which make a deep, vital source of the life of nations, feeding the latter throughout their entire existence. This improvisation shall be based on a creative ritual, understood as an inseparable component of a myth. A myth is a word, a ritual, or an action. This action or creative ritual shall develop itself via art interpretations of symbols and meanings; within the theme research field it shall add up to the archaic inheritance reconstruction, possibly relating it with the contemporary content.

Organizers provides accommodation at the EuropaCITY hotel for international artists, and exhibition space.
